Objectives of Informal Virtual Youth Consultations

- Strengthening the engagement of indigenous youth and youth from local communities in climate action and the UNFCCC process, such as at COP 27;
- To gather inputs on effective ways of designing the annual youth round table at COP27 and subsequent sessions.

Agenda

- Overview of LCIPP
- LCIPP 2nd three-year workplan and Activity 8 of the work plan
- Open discussion
- Next steps and closing

Local Communities and Indigenous Peoples Platform (LCIPP)

facilitates the exchange of experiences and good practices toward building a climate-resilient world for all.

The LCIPP made momentous progress since Paris 2015

Functions

The platform should promote the exchange of experience and best practices with a view to applying, strengthening, protecting and preserving traditional knowledge, knowledge of indigenous peoples and local knowledge systems, as well as technologies, practices and efforts of local communities and indigenous peoples related to addressing and responding to climate change, taking into account the free, prior and informed consent of the holders of such knowledge, innovations and practices

KNOWLEDGE

CAPACITY FOR ENGAGEMENT

The platform should build the capacity of indigenous peoples and local communities to enable their engagement in the UNFCCC process and the capacity of Parties and other relevant stakeholders to engage with the platform and with local communities and indigenous peoples, including in the context of the implementation of the Paris Agreement and other climate change related processes

(Decision 2/CP.23, para 6)

The platform should facilitate the integration of diverse knowledge systems, practices and innovations designing and implementing international and national actions, programmes and policies in a manner that respects and promotes the rights and interests of local communities and indigenous peoples. The platform should also facilitate the undertaking of stronger and more ambitious climate action by indigenous peoples and local communities that could contribute to the achievement of the nationally determined contributions of the Parties concerned in collaboration with indigenous youth and youth from local communities, as well as with broad and gender-balanced youth representation from each of the United Nations indigenous sociocultural regions, to explore gender-responsive ways and means to strengthen the engagement of youth, and participation in intergenerational knowledge-sharing and continuing/strengthening practices on the ground, as well to contribute to climate policies and actions at the national and international level

Activity 8 : Annual Youth Round Table

"Host an annual round table"

Objectives of Activity 8 : Annual Youth Round Table

1. Enhancing the understanding of the substance and procedures of the UNFCCC, both within and outside the Convention, and the important linkages between the international human rights standards of Indigenous peoples and the UNFCCC and other climate-related intergovernmental initiatives, including the IPCC

2. Enhancing the engagement of indigenous youth and youth from local communities in climate policy development and implementation at all levels

3. Facilitating the participation of indigenous youth and youth from local communities in intergenerational knowledge-sharing, strengthening practices on the ground and promoting intergenerational equity

Activity 8 : Annual Youth Round Table

Deliverables:

- Knowledge-gathering devoted to intergenerational knowledge-sharing, intergenerational equity, strengthening relevant practices on the ground, and enhancing youth engagement in climate policy development and implementation at all levels with a view to developing recommendations on how to enhance the leadership of indigenous youth and youth from local communities;
- Recommendations from indigenous youth participants and youth participants from local communities, ensuring gender and sociocultural balance, on the promotion of their participation in the activities of the FWG, as well as opportunities to enhance knowledge-sharing, capacity building and policy for integration under the UNFCCC process.
