7th Sámi parliamentarian Conference

30-31.5. 2023

Guided by the previous statements of the 6 conferences of Parliamentarians conferences and acting in good faith and mutual respect to the European parliamentarism, creating a progressive development where activities such as crossing the national states borders will be encouraged.

Affirming that the Sámi people are equal to all other peoples, and that we should be granted the rights to acting and defining ourselves. Our cultural differences should be respected as such.

Reaffirming that racism permeates western society and underlies the structural and institutional discrimination in Europe and the Nordic countries.

7th Sámi parliamentarian Conference

30-31.5. 2023

2) All actors including state companies, with activities affecting nature and environment in the traditional areas of the Sámi people, should in their applications for permits have a policy in how to safeguard, respect and recognise human rights and indigenous peoples.

1(3)

We do remind that fulfilling with verdicts treaties, or other constructive arrangements, and the relationship based upon consultation and cooperation, are the basis for a trustworthy and lasting partnership between the Nordic States and the Sámi parliaments.

7th Sámi parliamentarian Conference

30-31.5. 2023

We express our rights to use self-determination of the Sámi people to the establishment of a border-crossing Sámi area to protect our culture, biological diversity and the continuation.

7) Agenda 2030 is an action plan with goals for transition to a sustainable society for people, the planet and prosperity. Agenda 2030's goals and sub-goals are integrated and indivisible and encompass all four dimensions of sustainable development: the economic, the social, the cultural and the environmental. Goal number 15 of Agenda 2030 promotes: Protect restore and promote the sustainable use of land-based ecosystems, sustainably manage forests, combat desertification.
