Issue:	The Facilitative Working Group (FWG) of the Local Communities and Indigenous Peoples Platform (LCIPP) invites the sharing of practices and stories pertaining to the development and use of curricula and materials generated by Indigenous Peoples. Submissions of relevant practices and stories should be in the context of climate change and highlight Indigenous knowledge in formal and informal education systems. This includes providing guidelines for the ethical and equitable utilization of these resources. Additionally, the FWG welcomes submissions in various formats such as written case studies, short videos, photo narratives, and voice recordings. All submissions should adhere to the substantive and procedural elements of the right to free, prior, and informed consent from the holders of the knowledge shared. This call for submissions is part of the implementation of LCIPP's second three-year workplan.	Deadline:	31/10/2024
Title:	Share specific practices and stories related to the development and use of indigenous curricula and materials in formal and informal education systems, in the context of climate change	Session Name:	SBSTA 60
